HON. CLARK H. NYE

Judge of Probate

PAINESVILLE

OHIO

Born on a farm in Concord, Lake County, Ohio, son of Henry C. and Almira E. Nye. His grandparents were settlers as early as 1802. The Judge was educated in the country schools and in Oberlin, where he secured his A. B. Taught school in Lake county, in Illinois and Idaho. Was admitted to the Illinois Bar in 1888, and in Ohio, 1895. Practiced law till 1903, in Painesville, when elected Probate Judge. Renominated at the May primaries without opposition. He is a trustee of the Painesville Hospital, and chairman of the Board. His endowments to this institution have been large and his contributions continuous.

Hon. ARLINGTON G. REYNOLDS

Judge of the Court of Common Pleas

Is a native of Lake County, and was born in the Town of Mentor, November 24, 1849. He is the son of George W. and Honor S. (Nowlen) Reynolds. Obtained his education in the district schools, Collegiate Institute, Willoughby and Oberlin College. Read law with Judge G. N. Tuttle, and was admitted to the Bar in 1882. Practiced in Lake County till his election to the Common Pleas bench in 1910. Served two terms as probate judge, and two terms as mayor of Painesville. Elected to the Legislature in 1897, and re-elected in 1899. Served as speaker of the 74th Assembly. In 1909 was appointed Judge of the Court of Common Pleas and elected the following year. Since 1898 has served as Trustee of Lake Erie College.

HARRY E. HAMMAR

Attorney at Law

OFFICES, WILCOX BLOCK

318-224 MAIN ST., PAINESVILLE, O.

Harry E. Hammar has been in the general practice of law continuously in these same offices since June 7, 1894.

Mr. Hammar takes great pride in his law library. A credit to him personally, it is also a mark of distinction to the Lake County Bar. It is regarded both by members of the profession and by law book experts as being the most carefully selected and well appointed law library in the State. Complete sets of original editions of the United States Supreme Court Reports of all the Code State Reports and of many of the Common Law State Reports, encyclopedias, and, as well, all the latest annotated text books on all the various branches and departmental subjects of the law, combine to make this library one of the most complete and most useful possible to obtain.

The volumes, numbering in all seven thousand, contained in four hundred and fifty uniform sectional book cases, so arranged, indexed and catalogued as to be easily available for ready reference, form an attractive and pleasing feature of Mr. Hammar's commodious and well appointed offices.

MR. A. J. BANDLE

Mr. A. J. Bandle is in the Real Estate business at Painesville, Ohio. He was born in Westfield, Chataqua County, New York, December 24th, 1841. He enlisted in the First Ohio Independent Battery, July, 1861, serving throughout the war, or three years as Corporal. He served with his Battery in the Battles of Second Bull Run, Antietam, South Mountain, Floyd Mountain, Lynchburg and all the battles and skirmishes in which his Battery were engaged. After an honorable discharge at the close of his service, he migrated to West Virginia, virtually before the war closed and remained until one year after the close of the war. From West Virginia he went to Kansas, where he engaged in the Real Estate business. During a cyclone in Southern Kansas, the building which he occupied was carried a half mile, Mr. Bandle remaining in the building but was seriously injured. From Kansas, he moved to North Michigan, where he engaged in the lumber business for twenty years. From Michigan, he moved to Cleveland, where he was engaged in the Real Estate business and from Cleveland to Painesville. Mr. Bandle is a member of Dyer Post, No. 17, and his wife a member of the Woman's Relief Corps.
